END OF DAY. November 28

USD INDEX. The USD was quiet today with markets closed in the US for thanksgiving. Buyers will look to move above 106 while sellers aim for a break below that number.

S&P 500. US markets closed.

GOLD. Buyers maintaining $2630 resistance with sellers staying away since Monday's sell-off. Sellers will aim below $2600 level while buyers look up at $2650.

BRENT OIL. Very little activity as buyers protect the $72 support area.

BITCOIN. With neither buyers or sellers making a move today the daily declining trendline remains intact. $95000 looking pivotal.
